For the planning commission, I have no experience and training other than the great deal of work I have done educating myself on the process for my recent City Council run. This commission would be my preference

I have considerably more experience in senior services. I have occupied many different positions in senior services, though these were primarily mangerial or executive. I grew up working in senior services, as my mother was an RN who spent a great deal of time specializing in geriatrics. When I was younger, I also did some volunteer work to help take care of an older member of the community.
